I am completely overthrown
With discontent
Being educated by your mind
Was harder than I thought
I feel like life has morphed
My body into something else
Everything is changing
I used to be a good girl

A good girl

Chorus
Aerial burns on my back
Something is stirring inside
Crashing me down
I feel lost
And the sunrise comes
I used to be a good girl
Thats who I was
Gone, shes never coming back
That was the old me
Eclipsed
A good girl

Life used to be different
Nobody cared about me
When I wasnt even looking
I found you
And you came into my life
My life, so wonderful
I cannot begin to describe it
Because
I used to be a good girl

A good girl

Chorus

Can you even start to wonder why
We are beginning to fall apart?
Maybe we just made the wrong

Decision in life
I could have sworn
You were the one
I could have told the world
That I really fallen in love
For the first time

The roughs on my eyes
Dont go away
Mama tells me that Im cursed
Papa says that Im too active
I just wanna be free

From what I used to be

A good girl
Oh no
A good girl
Not again

Chorus (Heavy)

Shes coming back
I sense her
Its my fault
How can I work the truth out?
I want to explain it to someone
Will they listen?
Or will I really need to leave
This time?

Calm down
Count to 100
Dont light
Dont extinguish
We are ordered to burn out
Im your enemy
It has turned out so

Good girl
Be a good girl

Chorus (softly)

Good girl
Good girl
Good gir
