I needed you
You weren't there
You never cared about me
You broke my heart
So many times
Till there was nothing that I felt inside

I didn't know
That I'd be needing you
Till I lost your love now you're all I'm thinking of

Chorus
Standing here in the pouring rain
Every night callin' out your name
Lookin' for the door to your heart
Baby please let me see a sign
Let me know that your love's still mine
Let me back through to door to your heart

So many nights
So all alone
So many days
How I wished that you still loved me
You had your chance
Threw it away
And now you love me but your love's too late

I didn't know
You were the one for me
No that I see
Back in your arms is where I wanna be

Chorus

Standin' here in the pourin' rain
You weren't there
Every night callin' out your name
You didn't care
Looking for the door to your heart
You broke my heart
Baby please let me see a sign

So many times
Let me know that your love's still mine
Let me back through the door to your heart back through the door to your heart
I needed you ad lib
