Sometimes I feel the pain, I only see the rain,
I can't make it through, (without you, without you) Lost in the dead of night, I lose my will to fight, I can't see this through, (without you, without you)

But your love is there for me, when my whole world is falling,

You're the only one who understands the other set of footprints in the sand.

So carry me now,

You're the only one who understands, how every breath of life is in your hands,

So carry me now, so carry me now . . .

Sometimes I'm so alone, my feelings are unknown to everyone,

(and I need you, I need you)

A smile can hide the truth, nobody has a clue what I'm going through,

And I call on you, (and I need you, I need you)

Your love is there for me, when my whole world was falling,

You're the only one who understands the other set of
footprints in the sand.

So carry me now,

You're the only one who understands, how every step
of life is in your hands,

So carry me now

Sometimes the storm will wear you down, (I'm not alone),

I want to scream but there's no sound, (I'm not alone),

But your love is there for me, when my whole world comes crashing down,

You're the only one who understands, the other set of
footprints in the sand

So carry me now

You're the only one who understands, how every step
of life is in your hands,
So carry me now
You're the only one who understands, the other set of
footprints in the sand
So carry me now, carry me now
So carry me now, carry me now
