Boy, I can't wait to see you again
You're the one for my heart, you're my best friend
Before you left we said I do on that special day
Now I'm aching for the life we'll have when you're home to stay

You're the sweetest love I've ever known
I pledge my love with this band of gold
I said I do and that won't ever change
'Cause my love is forever, yeah

Boy, I miss you so bad when you're not around
And I'm trying to stay strong, take the good with the bad
That's why I tell the world with a smile on my face
That I appreciate all the sacrifice you make

'Cause you're the sweetest love I've ever known
I pledge my love with this band of gold
I said I do and that won't ever change
'Cause my love is forever, yeah, yeah

Even though we don't know when the war will end
You march on, hold your head up high with pride
Promise me you'll be coming home real soon
Patiently, I'll be praying in the night

Although we're apart, you'll always have my heart

You're the sweetest love I've ever known
I pledge my love with this band of gold
I said I do and that won't ever change
'Cause my love is forever, ever, ever and ever

You're the sweetest love I've ever known
I pledge my love with this band of gold
I said I do and that won't ever change
'Cause my love is forever, yeah
