I tried to work things out in my own way
Tried a thousand different ways to make you stay
(stay)
You're the only one that I love baby
(More than you will ever know)
Even if you must go I'll still stay

Because my heart can't change
No, no, my heart won't change (change)
You're my true love
And my heart can't change
No, no, some things don't change (change)
Come back

Tried to show you all the love I was capable of
But it wasn't enough
But know I'm reaching out my hands
But understand you're in command
'Cause you're the only one that I love baby
(More than you will ever know)
And even if you must go I'll still stay

Because my heart can't change
No, no, my heart won't change (change)
You're my true love
And my heart can't change
No, no, some things don't change (change)
Come back

But if you need me to go
Then I'm going, baby
I just need you to know
That you've change my life
I promise all the wrong I've done you, baby
I'm gonna make it right
Just give me a chance

Because my heart can't change
No, no, my heart won't change (change)
You're my true love
And my heart can't change

No, no, some things don't change (change)
Come back

'Cause my heart can't change
No, no, my heart won't change (change)
You're my true love
And my heart can't change
No, no, some things don't change (change)
Come back
