I needed you, you weren't there
You didn't care, you never cared about me
You broke my heart so many times
'Til there was nothing that I felt inside

I didn't know that I'd be needing you
'Till I lost your love, now you're all I'm thinking of

Standing here in the pouring rain
Every night callin' out your name
Lookin' for the door to your heart

Baby, please let me see a sign
Let me know that your love's still mine
Let me back through to door to your heart

So many nights, so all alone
So many days, how I wished that you would love me
You had your chance, you threw it away
And now you love me but your love's too late

I didn't know, you were the one for me
Now that I see, back in your arms is where I wanna be

Standin' here in the pourin' rain
Every night callin' out your name
Lookin' for the door to your heart

Baby, please let me see a sign
Let me know that your love's still mine
Let me back through the door to your heart

Standin' here in the pourin' rain
Every night callin' out your name
Lookin' for the door to your heart

Baby, please let me see a sign
Let me know that your love's still mine
Let me back through the door
Back through the door to your heart

I needed you, you weren't there

You didn't care, you never cared about me
You broke my heart so many times

Let me back through the door, hey hey
Through the door to your heart
I needed you, you weren't there
