Up all night with thoughts I can't escape from
With all the things you said
It's a one way street, this dead end situation
Keeps running through my head

Now the thrill's gone
You're moving on
You say you really love me
But you must be going

It's too bad
It's to darn sad
But not enough
To make me want to cry

Somewhere there's a man who needs me
Not someone who runs and leaves me up all night
All those nasty games you're playin'
Make me sick and tired of stayin' up all night

Now I can't calm down, you got my senses reelin'
How could you say goodbye
It's 4 a.m, I'm starin' at the ceiling
Can't seem to close my eyes

But I'll be fine in time
I'll find another lover, boy and you'll be sorry
I'll be alright, I'll sleep tight
Until the break of dawn

Somewhere there's a man who needs me
Not someone who runs and leaves me up all night
All those nasty games you're playin'
Make me sick and tired of stayin' up all night

I can think of better things to do
Countin' stars instead of counting on you
There'll be someone in my life
To hold me close when we're up all night

I'll be fine in time
I'll find another lover, boy and you'll be sorry

I'll be alright, I'll sleep tight
Until the break of dawn

Somewhere there's a man who needs me
Not someone who runs and leaves me up all night
All those nasty games you're playin'
Make me sick and tired of stayin' up all night

Somewhere there's a man who needs me
Not someone who runs and leaves me up all night
All those nasty games you're playin'
Make me sick and tired of stayin' up all night

All night
All night
All night
