You can tell the truth, you can tell a lie
You can try to run from what you feel inside
And tell yourself, tell yourself you don't need me

You can walk away from what you know is right
Think you won't be thinkin' about me at night
And tell yourself, tell yourself it'll be easy

And you might believe it but don't be misled
You might think it will be that way

But you know you can't fight fate
You can run but you can't run away
No matter what you do, no matter what you say
When it's meant to be it's gonna be that way
You can't fight fate

You can drive your car, drive it night and day
But you won't ever drive me away
I'll be in your heart, in your heart baby forever

I was meant to be with you, you were meant to be with me
Now what's it gonna take to make you see
We were meant to be, meant to be, be together

You might not understand it, oh but that's what the plan is
And it's something that you can't change

'Cause you know you can't fight fate
You can run but you can't run away
No matter what you do, no matter what you say
When it's meant to be it's gonna be that way
You can't fight fate

And you might believe it, oh but don't be misled
There's just some things that you can't change, change

But you know you can't fight fate
You can run but you can't run away
No matter what you do, no matter what you say

When it's meant to be it's gonna be that way

But you know you can't fight fate
You can run but you can't run away
No matter what you do, no matter what you say
When it's meant to be it's gonna be that way
You can't fight fate

No, no, no matter what you do, no matter what you say
When it's meant to be it's gonna be that way
No, you can't fight fate
No, no, no matter what you do, no matter what you say
When it's meant to be it's gonna be that way
You can't fight fate
