Romans 8:18 says "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us." I ask myself how did He do it, make such a sacrifice, and the one's that He loved wanted Him crucified, and He knew that His friends would betray Him, and He knew that His blood would be shed, He could have put someone else in His place but instead He said "Amen" I surrender, Amen my will is yours, "Amen" I lift my hands and say "Amen", so I looked at my test and trials they can't compare to his pain, and if he can go through it, surely I can do the same. Oh Lord, I bless you for all of the bad, and I bless you for all of the good, and the place where I stand you have already stood, "Amen" nevertheless "Amen", I don't understand but "Amen", Lord I surrender, "Amen" my soul say "Amen," this is not about me Lord, but all about your will, "Amen"

'Amen', yeah yeah
Lord I trust you with all of my soul, my soul say "Amen" Lord I surrender to your will, and I surrender to your way, there is nothing else to say but 'Amen'
You can mold me, You can make me, You can break me.
And when trouble comes say "Amen" and when trouble goes say "Amen"
Lord I trust you, with all of my heart and soul.

"Amen"
