God, didn't give up on me
Didn't give up on me
God, didn't give up on me
Didn't give up on me

When I'm weak God
Well, He didn't let me go, yeah
When I messed up
He restored my soul
Oh, it was God
Ooh, that didn't give up

Read in the paper the other day
About a preacher who feel from grace
He begged the church for forgiveness
He realized he made a mistake

And some folks left the church and said
He's suppose to be a man of the cloth
See they forgot He was the same man
That prayed for them when they were lost

So glad God is not like man
He won't throw you away
After you've done wrong
God will pick you up and dust you off
And put you back where you belong

God, didn't give up on me
I'm so glad
God, didn't give up on me
Didn't give up on me

When I'm weak God
When I gave up
He didn't let me go, oh
When I messed up
He restored my soul, yeah
Oh, it was God
That didn't give up

Listen now, it's easy to point the finger

When the spotlights not on you
Well, and we would be surprised what we'd see
If the truth come out on you

And you need to show a little mercy and grace
For somebody else
And take your foot off your brother
And consider yourself

I'm glad God is not like man
When you've done wrong
He will pick you up
Put you back where you belong
Oh, no no no, never

You'll never never, no never Oh never, never let
Never let me fall
When I need you
I can call you

God, God
Oh, oh, God
Oh, oh, God

God, God
Oh, oh, God
Oh, oh, God

God, God
Oh, oh, God
Oh, oh, God

When I give up
He didn't let me go, oh
And when I messed up
He didn't give up on me
