Let our children live and not die in the streets like the ones before them give them opportunity

That these walls would be broken and that these doors will open that these lies will be exposed and that the truth will be spoken that these souls will be saved from these last and evil days
Yeah

That all of Gods children will turn from their wicked ways

That we love one another like sisters and brothers brothers brothers no matter the color that we pray for one another
yeah
no more hatred no more no more deceit
that we get rid of jealousy jealousy and we stand together and the bound will be free oh free and that we stop our selfish livin and that we learn to start givin start given that the lost will be found and that we go to higher ground oh oh ooh
