Drown me deep, again and again
Hold my feelings back from escaping me within My soul has been torn in two
I can't live without you
You are the one factor that makes my feelings true
I never want to be done with you

(CHORUS)

You bring my blood to boil with those beautiful eyes
Hoping your happiness was never a disguise
I feel safe when I wrap you in my arms
Feeling that nothing will ever cause you harm

I know when something's wrong,
When something's went amiss
I'll work my hardest
To keep everything like it is.
Just to make you happy is my job,
And all i want to give you is joy and my love.

(bass guitar lead)chorus

Beyond this classic fantasy
Personality and trust,
To kiss your soft sweet lips
I want to feel your love

chorus

This is where it starts
I hope it never ends
My feelings for you
Have already began
