I don't need a love
But there is one thing
Love has taught me
It's to never expect too much

Don't need a believable touch
I just need you
I just need you
Don't need mine, I found mine

Why should we be wasting time?
You don't know what you missed
I look into your eyes like this
And you should be in front of me

Seeing everything I see
Looking at you

Check out this view
Think of a quiet beach
Think of how the waves crash down
Think about a summer's eve
No offense to them but I think I'm not there
With you, walk in a room
In the light or in the dark

Well nothing shadows who you are
You don't know what you missed
I look into your eyes like this
And you should be in front of me
Seeing everything I see
Looking at you

Check out this view
I look outside the window
Every day see something new

But all I ever wanted was a
Window looking at you, at you
And you don't know what you missed

I look into your eyes like this
And you should be in front of me
Seeing everything I see
You don't know what you missed
I look into your eyes like this
And you should be in front of me
Seeing everything I see
Looking at you
