He said, "I got me a nice new apartment"
In the city, wouldn't you have hated that?
I'm getting by with a broken heart you left me with
He hung up the phone, and she whispered back

Missing you like this is such sweet sorrow
Won't you come back to me?
I'll be here today, and here tommorrow
In dark blue Tennessee

He was lying when he said he moved to LA
He's just hiding out on the other side of town
With his head in his hands, and she's just 7 miles away
He looks out the window, puts her picture down saying,
Missing you like this is such sweet sorrow
Won't you come back to me?
I'll be here today and here tommorrow
In dark blue Tennessee

She almost called him the night he wrote
These simple words in his goodbye note

Missing you like this is sweet sorrow
Won't you come back to me?
I'll be here today, and here tommorrow
In dark blue Tennessee

In dark blue Tennessee
