This melody is what your love means to me I love you so much babe can't you see it is like a rainbow after the thunderstorm your love always kept me safe and warm,

You had to walk through that open door
I suddenly fell down to the floor it hurt so much to live without you I tried not to think about you

You were more than I ever had my love for you still makes me glad

So please come back we could start anew no more sitting around feeling blue

So come on, it will be just me and you Don't hesitate
It would be great it's not too late lets celebrate!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
