{Taylor}

I'm all alone and it's too dark
I need a man on my mark
In times like these I still need a guy
Nick you are so mine

Hey, Nick I know it's dark but I need you
I'm so alone and I'm too framed but I need you
I don't how I can be without you
I need you

{Demi}

I'm still alone inside this cage
Still need a man but it's not the same
In times like these I still need a guy
Joe you are still mine

Hey, Joe I know it's dark but I need you
I'm so alone and I'm too framed but I need you
I don't how I can be without you
I need you

{Taylor & Demi}

In times like these we still need some guys
Yeah, you are still mine

Hey, guys I know it's dark but I need you
I'm so alone and I'm too framed but I need you
I don't how I can be without you
I need you
