(Talking)

Wow it's been at least 5 years since I've seen her. pfft it's hard to believe

(Start singing)

I can't believe it's been that long, why didn't you call, why didn't you write. was it cause of him or was it just cause you don't love me anymore. you could have found some way o contact me.

(Chorus)

But I know it's not my falt

Once he's gone I know you'll start to come around
I know it's his fault now, you should have told me sooner, I wouldn't have had to live my life this way

(Sing softly)

Now that he's gone will I get to see you again

At least hear your voice again I think it's gonna workout this time around

We can be a family again not like before is gonna e different,

Were gonna do lots of stuff together I think it's gonna work out this time around not like before

(Chorus)

But I know it's not my fault

Once he's gone I know you'll start to come around
sooner I wouldn't have had to live my life this way cause I know it's not my fault now
