Verse 1:

Thinking that you were so smooth
But i had my eye on you
Couldnt answer your phone cause your minutes were gone
did you really think i'd play the fool
I was there when everybody else was gone
So what you're doin to me now is so wrong
You got your nerve fool
You say you wanna know babe
But I don't know.

(Chorus)

You wanna know the truth but
(can you handle it?)x2
You want it just to you but
(can you handle it?)x2
You wanna know the truth but
(can you handle it?)x2
Find someone else to fill your shoes boy
(i aint havin it)
(can you handle it?)

Verse 2:

Since its time that we come clean
Then i must do the same
I was creepin its true
Just to get back at you
Im tired playin in this game
Not tryna be stuck here never realize
Gotta grow up baby wanna make it right
....
You say you wanna know babe but i dont know

(Chorus)

not finished..
