You want it it's coming only it's just the time before fall hand me your jacket now i Am yours missed the first step fell cut my lip i've been eating too much sugar There's no cover there's a truth in it definitely if only i'd know where i was it was Too dangerous too unbalanced to try and walk the ledge take one step back it's One step forward give me your word i'll go steady with you comfort bound turn Off the light won't go back to sleep until i read 5 more pages then i'm gonna set Them on fire watch them leave watch my words disappear watch me from the Inside my room crouched down on all fours
