She wants to embrace her, however the world will change She wants to feel, but She can only describe it Don't let the monster stay under the bed , don't' let the Monster stay under the bed Hey you, say what she needs to hear It's just like Donna said it depends where you're at in your head you can find what you need Maybe it's finding a very secret place to hide your copy of Rubyfruit Jungle Maybe you're writing your own There's a wig wearing boy named psychic Al What's he's looking for, he won't find in school He stays up late, flipping through Tapes Listening to songs he's heard a hundred times, but nothing's there Hey you, Say what he needs to hear Queer sex is great, it's fun as shit don't worry Jesus Is dead and God don't exist and swearing is fun, it's funner than piss, that's it's Stupid is a cruel and classist myth. Queer sex is great, it's fun as shit, Don't kill Yourself cause people can't deal with your brilliance Sometimes I can't remember Why i want to live Then i think of all the freaks and i don't want to miss this It's just Like Donna said it depends where you're at in your head.
