sinead o'conner locked up in a hollow tree starts a cable station called number one chance pirate TV the creatures of the forest reject network TV as a thing out of control we're building bombs looking for our chance this shit's for me it's time to choose it's time to see who will be loyal and who will betray the forces that be if you're wearing blue stand up if you're wearing red sit down if you're wearing green you're mine if you're wearing green i'm yours dry it off try it on it's one day's ransom pay if that's a relief now i'm convinced and another thing are you bound by every thought that ever crossed your mind sometimes it feels alright and that's a relief sometimes it feels alright like when you rip a picture of the pope
