A great accomplishment
Only to be ignored
Now you're staring
And my eyes
Won't see what's
In front of me

Don't be surprised
When you're out
There on your own
It won't be a surprise
When you wake up alone

Making time for us
Can't be that hard
You've only told me
What i needed to hear
I can't regret
It only ruins my future
My future

One more day is all we need
To finally get this right
You know it's all we've needed
You're telling me
You haven't learned a thing

We'll wake up
And see what's been missing
One day this will pass and (Consider this over)
You won't be
At the mercy of storms
You don't understand
You won't understand
This is your end
