Into the blue, where seaweed grows
There is home of sea-maiden
I sink with your last breath
Until I kiss your lips

I follow your shadow
'Til I find my sweet
I cry for you, flow my tears

[Chorus:]

Where are you my prince, my dear
I'm your mermaid in your dream
I'm waiting your under deep blue sea
Come here my darlin' and release me

Into the blue, where seahorses swim
There is home of sea-maiden
Dive with me into the unknown
Until I touch your soul

I follow your shadow
'Til I fall in love
I sing for you, burying all your fears

Where are you my prince, my dear
I'm your mermaid in your dream
I'm waiting your under deep blue sea
Come here my darlin' and release me

In the middle of the night
When the moonlight is so bright
Form the deepness of black ocean
She will come and sing again...

Where are you my prince, my dear
I'm your mermaid in your dream
I'm waiting your under deep blue sea
Come here my darlin' and release me
