Now with your loyal fan base and to the extent
That they're dedicated to your music and your message
It has some people calling you a cult leader
How do you feel about that?
Cult leader?
Ha, ha, ha, ha
Yeah, they've been comparing you to
You know like
Jim Jones or David Koresh
You know that's, that's, that's real fucked up to Um, compare me to Jim Jones or uh, David Koresh
You know what I mean 'cause those were, were We're not people that were for the greater good
You know I'm saying, they're trying to say
That I'm gonna feed my fans electric Kool Aid
They got me fucked up
In this house there is no room for envy
This is why we wear our uniform
Racist, not welcome, rapist, not welcome
Hatred, dreaded in this house
Ready to fight hatred with love? Join us
If you come with me then I can show you
Oh, I will take you where you dare not go to Follow me and let my mind control you
We will rebuild this world that will destroy you
How many wanna go?
How many wanna know?
How to fight demons, when the planet's gonna blow
A lot of ammunition gotta be packing a lot of dough
Being together and it is wonderful
A gun was loaded, one exploded
Speaking me for with the tongue he just folded
From the Tech soldier, son, you're get blessed over Bums they straight come from under [Incomprehensible]
Told ya that I would die for my loved ones
Kill for my blood ones beside a cousin
Together when the evil does come
I question, are you willing to plug one?
Protection is one thing you need

To battle any animal coming with greed
If evil try to penetrate us and feed
Simple mathematics, demon, you bleed
I know this comes off violent but this fight's for love
It should not be this way but evil drew first blood
Put the Roman numeral 9 on your inside right wrist
So I can read it properly like this
That's how we know we're together within a crisis
And you don't need a lot of your money to buy this Stay with me in the darkness when the light hits
I will promise your family low prices
A better war for your boys and girls Might get a little dark and dirty before we get to the brightness
If you come with me then I can show you
Oh, I will take you where you dare not go to
Follow me and let my mind control you
We will rebuild this world that will destroy you
The red is for the blood we all she'd fighting
The black is for the nights we fight with no lighting
The white is for the clouds from which we came flying
Landing in this jam with man and then began dying
We slegna, see dread through these retinas
We beg to be swept up by the blessed head inspector
But all these hecklers don't respect the way we lecture
ya
Get next to ya, that's when the Tech get flexed
And I wanna cruise next with us
If I happen to die at the end of my run
Please give off all my notebooks and guns to my son
When the smoke clears
I hope there's some folks near to vote me as the Pope here
And I quote, 'Fear Is Not A Condition' and 'No Tears'
The new color is black clothes, black boots and strings
I'm gonna show these non-believers what mass lab producing means
If you come with me then I can show you
Oh, I will take you where you dare not go to
Follow me and let my mind control you
We will rebuild this world that will destroy you
That's right, there are people right outside these doors
That would actually will attempt to be our oppositions simply
Because of the love we have for each other, the love
Ain't that something?
We still have our daily jobs, we still pay our taxes,
right?
Some of you all ain't paid your taxes but we working on it, right?
So what do you think the problem is?

That we all dress alike? That's petty, that couldn't be it
That we helped those in any kind of trouble
That's supposed to be a good Samaritan, right?
Then evil that's why we have friction
And what do we do to evil?
O-W-H-H
(O-W-H-H)
Off with his head
(Off with his head)
Off with his head
(Off with his head)
Off with his head
(Off with his head)
That's what I think
