When im thinkin ima boss in the biz but im lost and i fake it that im off in the lid but they pay the cost when it is dark at the crib

Some say that if tell them to hate my people are at the gate ready for sealin your fate that is up for debate cause when i make my music aint no evil from mister yates callin me

A cult leader i dont really know but ima fosho heater wickedness commin from mine rove they could blow me but the folks wanna soul see us at the bottom with the devil look around and it be no N9na they say i lead em to evil like i was jimmy jones and feedin the people when i bleed in the steeple the reason they seizin me aint no decreasin my ego my powers for good i think would i shrink if somebody took away how good i ink but that would never happen im makin it with the rappin but they want me to collapse and when i could i sink

(Chorus) Nikkiya

I hope i find what im looking for, maybe i should drink just a little more. Delusional
Im fightin but im losin feel like we offer up confusion Hear me!
My rights and wrongs are questioned in my life and confusion seems to read alibi. Delusional im feelin like i dont belong, feel like im tellin you to do wrong hear me!
