(intro)

Yea so, since i was 10 years older then her she tried to give that coming to America spiel You know what Im saying like Some guys put in an hour some of them even an hour and a half, but a man gotta put in overtime for me to get off

(Chorus)

Work it baby
Im gona give you extra you deserve it baby put a star next to you cause you perfect baby
All the time
Clock out, clock in for overtime

(Tech N9ne)

If you think we bout to go to sleep Forget about it you can really doubt it we can make theses energies link
In the middle was the night fixing to enter de pink Never one to be stingy i leave my dinner she winks cause she thinks she got me in her ??? ??? brinks But Im a stick it with out a ticket and in her tender she thinks Suck me up and i become her energy drink
And thats what your gona need punch the clock like Im gona be done on 3 Baby you prolly wanna kick and get her done on e
But you ever have steamy sexual fun on weed
So i told her 9
No i don't look it but Im the older kind but that dont mean Im gona stick and be quick to forget it because tonight Im get it in overtime

(Chorus)

(Stevie Stone)

Said i Love your body love your pace
Love the way your maneuverin your body off in my space
And weather the chase and have your body off in the days
And could you feel the hormones they offer rays and check it

Let me take a little dose of the page Im hittin 4 hours and hours ..hours hours hours and days
All the positions i feel it really back in the day
Im ready to play my trombone have a parade Get it get it get it get it come here well theres a couple little things i wanna say in your ear Im shifting gears
Never wanna smoke the wheel
Stevie stone in the bed Im a freak for real Baby girl Im gona fight for real a little checkwards tongue got me head over heels weather to chill head shot ready to kill ready to deal
head rock bock not that you will

(Chorus)

(Tech N9ne)

Baby baby
Gave me and job and i love it
I know you be lovin the way i throb when you hug it
When i got the panini i thought the job really was it Before the panini you take the job and you shove it Feel like a nigga makin love when i does it Don't clock em when Im stopin when it buzz Im gona good enough to be your husband in public

You really wantin to be packin a stud in your luggage

(Stevie Stone)
