I'm tell y'all a lil' story man, ya know what I'm sayin'?
Yo this is a song about, somebody who did me wrong dawg
I thought you was my homie man, I guess not, fuck it

You were supposed to be my dog Homey when I first met you what was told to me was fraud
What a shocker an impostor, I been crossed I lost ya
My best friend turned out to be an enemy the sin in me hit me
No sympathy, no empathy either Homey I never denied ya nothing that you wanted

Women, I never player hated I hooked
You up booked you up from the beginning the sin in me had Love for you shed blood for you when you wanted to dig
I dug for you nigga but you a double crosser nasty hand tosser
I should've known you was evil, when you told me it was cool
For we to be sex fools when we under the steeple the retrieval

I'm trying to get my life back no more stopping women From putting a knife at your cap remember when we were Kickin' it bitches was giving everyday we did it in Every way, but the respect went away you got a mind of Your own now you're grown now can I ask you a question
Did you forget we were kinfolk nigga we the same complexion?

I'm stressing you was always in front of me so I listened everyday
You wanted me on a mission I even let you have sex
With my lady like a G infatuated with you and not me
I sucked it up; I got back with her you fucked it up By letting her know I creeping around with every chick in the Town buster, I should've known not to trust you

Listen I'm losing my life because of you I lost my life because of you, I'm losing my wife because of you I even had sex and a baby with that crazy bitch you introduced me to Now I'm straight depressed, I hate your flesh
The fate was just, belate the Tech laid to rest Every time you got drawls you made my Poor little life fall nigga you got balls

You ain't never had a partner like me, real a never Ever sold you pipe dreams personal yes it might seem Nigga when you was burning, I went and got the doxycycline
Looked out for your health, and this is all the respect
I get hater your neck I slit but I can't 'cause I'm Attached to ya and I don't know why sometimes I wish You would just die

It would eliminate all this hurt maybe I could Get up out of all this dirt you caused me so strong Nothing can stop ya not even cerebral pawlsy I can't believe
It my best homey turned on me you must have forgot We grew up together I'm through life is over now it's Nothing else to do point the finger and blame it on you

(It's all because of you, you, you)
I lost my girl, my world is upside down because I found you wasn't shit
(It's all because of you, you, you)
Broke us into you untrue, don't know what to do I'm talking to you, who?
My dick, my dick, my dick
