Close your eyes for the night is falling
Fear no dark for it's warm and safe
And looks familiar as it comes approaching
Come with me and I will take you

A world beyond the sleep, beyond what's real
And safety hidden sphere
Away from all daily reality
The truth lies out there
The truth lies out there

As the innocent lay their heads down
As the night chants it's luring call
Cross the borders of sense and foresight
Come with me and I will take you
Don't have to be afraid
A tear is only water
A sigh is only air
Whenever you feel haunted
The truth lies out there
The truth lies out there

A world beyond the sleep, beyond what's real
And safety hidden sphere
Away from all daily reality
The truth lies out there
The truth lies out there
