Silence in the living room
Hours feel like days
Silence when I speak to you
You're a thousand miles away
Crying for real oh yes you're worth the prize
Because when the mind gets clouding
I forget about our fights

[Refrain:]

Stay forever, it's never again
My words have been spoken,
It will come to an end
Stay forever, it's never again
My words have been spoken,
It will come to an end

I'll affix your energy
Running through my veins
Chemical the love I feel
For faces without name
Crying for real Oh, yes you're worth the prize

Because when your mind gets clouding
I forget about our fights

[Refrain]

This empty house is not a home
find the will to stand alone
Without your armour
Flesh and blood for turn to stone
find the will to stand alone
And wait to turn away

[Refrain:]

Stay forever, it's never again
Our words have been spoken, it will come to an end
Stay forever, it's never again
Our words have been spoken, it will come to an end
