To all the friends we've lost
And all the things we've seen
There's just so much time
And miles in between

Well it's been a long, long time
Since I've seen you around
Tell me where you've been
Tell me what you've found

It started out as fun
Never slowing down
Now I'm stuck on the run

All my life
Waited for a song to sing
All my life
Always something missing
All my life
I've been nearly broken
But I ain't choking now

To all the time I've lost
I'm raising up this glass
It's all been worth the cost
But the candle's burning fast

It started out as fun
Never slowing down
Now I'm stuck on the run

All my life
Waited for a song to sing
All my life
Always something missing
All my life
I've been nearly broken
But I ain't choking now
