Lights out and you go home
And you feel so, all lone
'Cos your dog died and your girl left,
But you won't cry, you won't cry

Are you alive? I wanna know
Need some helping, letting go
Are you alive? Need the rain
To wash these blues away

It's been almost six months
And you haven't been outside
I got a number for this great shrink
He'll put you right, put you right

Are you alive? I wanna know
Need some helping, letting go
Are you alive? Need the rain
To wash these blues away

So you haven't really slept in three whole days
Your home is a jungle and you mind is a maze
You got bloodshot eyes and a shirt full of stains
And now all you do is Pop a pill, close your eyes, take a sec until the pain dies,
But it won't heal what you feel inside
Jekylls dead day hello to Mr. Hyde
