Woke up this mornin' to
Another rainy day
That sunny face was missin'
Good ol' days seemed far away
Poundin' the pavement I
Could not have fantasized
Lookin' into baby blue eyes

Pleasures are so hard to find
When you're on your own
Tempt my eyes with blueberry pie
But I still keep feelin' alone
So life feels so easy a
Blueprint of paradise
When I see you smile babe then
I'm just like a child again
Gazing into baby blue eyes

Treasures are so hard to find
When you look around
Waiting turns I finally learn
That my girl's already been found
This life feels so easy a
Blueprint of paradise
When I see you smile babe then
I'm just like a child again
Gazing into baby blue eyes...
