Love comes, you know when you've got it at once Love comes, it gives you a sign when it comes
I know, that when you feel it you're warm inside
You can't conceal it Your heart can't hide it when loves comes Oh! Love comes

Love is out to get you Yeah I will not forget you Yeah!

Love comes, it's tender and shy when it comes Love comes, but if you keep on it becomes much bolder
'Cause when you hold it you're feeling strong, when you control it
You can't do wrong oh when love comes Oh! Love comes

Love is out to get you . . .

Love comes, you can't sneak away when it comes Love comes, it's getting me down if it runs away
But if you take it, you'll win a friend, I couldn't break it
I couldn't end it if love comes Oh! Love comes

Love is out to get you . . .

And if we get enough after a while I hope that you can think of me and smile
