Let's face the truth, the deed is done
Look at me now babe, and say I'm still the one Just who are we trying to defend
A burnt-out building should be condemned

Baby, I don't even know you anymore, do I?

Don't look forlorn, don't look so sad
Deep down you know I was always bad
You say, ""I don't know even know you anymore (baby)
I don't even know if I'm sure what I want""

Maybe a better man could understand
Maybe a better man could be your friend
Maybe a better man who would hold you
Like I'll never really hold you
Maybe he could love you so that baby, I may be a better
man

Yes I know, things have changed
Once we were lovers, now we ain't even friends
And maybe love, don't ask me why,
Is something for which I ain't qualified
You say, ""I can't even see the boy you were (baby)
And I don't think it's good to even be here anymore""

Maybe a better man could understand
Maybe a better man could be your friend
Maybe a better man could hold you like I'll never really hold you
man

Maybe a better man could be your friend
Maybe a better man could understand
Maybe a better man wouldn't leave you Wouldn't hurt you and deceive you Wouldn't leave you to believe that someday he may be a better man

Would be your friend

And understand so that you'd never need again
A better man
A better man
A better man
