Summer here is over in a million different ways
You look like a dream sometimes, but I don't dream these days
And yesterday the snow fell, by four o'clock it thawed
And last night making love to you, well honey, it was such a fraud

'Cos you can find yourself a lover
You can make yourself a home
And you can want no other ever
But it's never too late to be alone
No no no no no no to be alone
No no no no no no

So everything is settled or so we do pretend From a beautiful beginning babe to a muted kind of end
And our separate possessions are shuffled up on shelves
Like our fingers lock together when we talk about ourselves

'Cos you can find yourself a lover
You can make yourself a home
And you can want no other ever
But it's never too late to be alone
No no no no no no

You can find yourself one day staring into space
With a suitcase waiting by the door
You can think you've got it made 'til it hits you in the face
That these are not the people you want to be before
No no no no no no

Summer here is over, you can feel it in the air
From the down-town shells to the upland hills
The chill is everywhere

'Cos you can find yourself a lover
And you can make yourself a home
You can want no other ever

But it's never too late to be alone
No it's never too late to be alone
No baby, it's never too late to be alone
Be alone

You can find yourself a lover
(Baby baby baby)
You can find yourself
(Drown by the sea shore)
You can find yourself a lover
('Cos you can find yourself)
You can find yourself a lover
(You can want no other ever, ever, ever baby)
You can find yourself a lover
