With all the stuff they sell you night and day
With all the trash they try to trick you with you lie to me
Well I don't need it, but I get it anyway

With all the sadness and lunacy
With all the dispossessed hopeless, you're leaving me
Well I don't want it but it's how it's gonna to be

Yeah, you can try to save the world
And baby, that's fine
But is it such a hateful crime, to start with me?

With all the bad debts and misery
With all the dirty tricks and hypocrites you cheat on me
Well I don't want it, but it's all that I can see

With all the discrete obscenities
With all the money freaks and doublespeak your turn away
Well I don't need it, but I guess it's gonna stay

Yeah, you can try to save the world, well baby, that's fine
Is it such a hateful crime, to start with me, to start with me?
Baby start with me?

Yeah, you can try to save the world
And baby, that's fine
But is it such a hateful crime, to start with me?
But is it such a crime, to start with me, to start with me?
Baby start with me?
