Roll down the window
Let me hear the rain
Let me hear her whispering
Honey everything is okay

'Cos I've had enough bad news
To last a lifetime
I've had enough bad news
To last a lifetime

Well I drove all night under a seasick sky
And I made it by mid-afternoon
And I hope she's home so she can hold me tight
And tell me everything is alright

'Cos I've had enough bad news
To last a lifetime
And I've had enough bad news
To last a lifetime

And I was struck by how much I remembered
And how everything still looked the same
When a neighbor I met in her hallway said
"Looks like lover boy's too late again"

So, take your troublesome baggage
And put it on the next train home
'Cos you can guess somewhere else in the world right now
Someone else feels just as alone

'Cos I've had enough bad news
I've had enough bad news
I've had enough bad news
To last a lifetime, to last a lifetime
To last a lifetime, to last a lifetime

To last a lifetime
To last a lifetime
To last a lifetime
