Won't you take me
Where my feet feel happy in their own time
And the cathedral of reason let's the bells chime
And the lightning is fine?

I'm old enough to know
That people waiting on some big sign
Should quit their waiting on the divine
Divine is what's in your mind

I've seen the cruel and hard
And I've seen them hard on you
But I'll buy you brand new shoes if you cross to my side
There's a whole lot of walking to do

And if we're near or far
From our city by the sea-side
Well, as long as we keep our stride
I believe we'll be fine

You've seen the years roll on
And you've seen me roll with you
I see the road is long, so get on my side
There's a whole lot of walking to do

And if we stay on our feet
We'll make it in our own time
And though the road has got some steep climbs
I believe we'll be fine

From your house to my house, to the mews
There's a whole lot of walking to do
Bethnal green to the tube
There's a whole lot of walking to do

Aoyama to Shobuya
There's a whole lot of walking to do
Rock Creek Park, to the ave and on past the zoo
There's a whole lot of walking, whole lot of walking to do

Well I'm here and you're here

And it's true, there's a whole lot of walking to do
And you're cool and I'm cool
And it's true, there's a whole lot of walking to do

There's no fuss and I trust
I trust you, there's a whole lot of walking to do
And you're strong and I can be too
There's a whole lot of walking to do

And you do and I do
There's a whole lot of walking to do
