You've been getting expend;
Scratching at my wall.
Suicidal misfit;
it's time you took your fall.

I've ducked a lot but like a thousand knives;
their cutting into you babe.
It happens to you everyday.

I was just a schoolboy;
doing as I please.
Young girls in the classroom;
they was putting on the squeeze.

I've ducked a lot but like a thousand knives;
Their cutting into you babe.
It happens to you everyday.

I've ducked a lot but like a thousand knives;
Listen to what I say.

The time has come for you to pay.

Now I won't listen to your two cents;
to run and hide is to run into yourself
A thousand knives, oh yea.

(solo)

Now your on the rebound;
you know just how it feels.
A copulated misfit;
with the good housekeeping seal.

I've ducked a lot but like a thousand knives;
Their cutting into you baby.
it happens to you everyday.

Now I won't listen to your two cents;
to run and hide is to run into yourself.
