[Intro:]

I see You're all I need Father, God I see You're all I need (All I need)

God, God you're all I need to tell the truth LORD You're all I need (All I Need)

[Verse 1: Tedashii]

They said I was going crazy on the campus when You saved me

Cause I stopped partying, chasing all the ladies
And they told me I was loosing it calling me a lunatic Because, for you, that world; I told them I was through with it

Man I heard the rumors calling me a joke
I'm praying saying, I wish they knew what I know Cause if they did they would see, how you were meant to be

Much more than the god of emergencies
You're the God that elected me chose, and selected me

When nobody else would mess with me
Never neglected me you even loved me when you corrected me

Hands down you're the best to me
I spent years of my life trying to be liked or be like the people who

Seemed to be liked
Following the crowd, trying to be allowed Into a world where every thing
Seemed right
But,

[Hook: Chris Davis]

I wrote this song to tell you LORD
You're all I need (You're all I need)
(God) And I know you'll never fail me LORD You're all I
need

And when the time gets crazy and my vision gets hazy
Father
You're all I need (You're all I need)

When my life needs saving or the world starts to cave
in around me
You're all I need (You're all I need, You're all I need)

[Verse 2: Tedashii]

From saving me to raising me, shaping me and changing me
Embracing me, taking me, making me yours

Amazingly and graciously when I was lost and wavering
Couldn't get from A to B you opened the door
I deserved to be left there in distress with the rest there
Right there in my mess yeah
Still believing all the lies the world can satisfy
I almost died, pushing you to the side
What a fool, making crazy moves about to lose, all I had for a buzz and a Thrill
We too easily satisfied and that's just how Adam died,
He was in the place
Where the love wasn't real
But the more I get to know You the more I get to know truth
And through you I see who I am
My identity revealed as you show me how to live, through the example of the God-man
That's why,

[Hook: Chris Davis]

I wrote this song to tell you LORD
You're all I need (You're all I need)
(God) And I know you'll never fail me LORD You're all I
need
And when the time gets crazy and my vision gets hazy
Father
You're all I need (You're all I need)
When my life needs saving or the world starts to cave
in around me
You're all I need (You're all I need, You're all I need)

[Outro: Tedashii]

You're all I need Father God I see you're all I need (All I need)
God, God you're all I need to tell the truth LORD
You're all I need (All I need)
And when the time gets crazy and my vision gets hazy
Father
You're all I need (You're all I need)
When my life needs saving or the world starts to cave

in around me
You're all I need (all I need)
