So sit back girl let me show you how it's done
I swear that everyone's not out to get you
I know it seems like you're going nowhere
But I know that there's a better way

And life's not that hard
Just gotta find out where you stand girl
And when you've gone through life this long in his arms
I'd say that it could take a lifetime

So run away with me and I'll make your dreams come true
Don't look back, don't look back
Hollywood means so much more than you could ever know
So pack your bags girl, lets get away
It's time for you to leave this place, and time to make a change
So run away with me.

It's time to break away
Stand on your own two feet for once
Lets get up and get out lets leave this place
Your motivations lacking, but that's about to change girl
So run away with me and I'll make your dreams come true
Don't look back, don't look back
Hollywood means so much more than you could ever know
So pack your bags girl, lets get away
It's time for you to leave this place, and time to make a change
So run away with me.

Run away, run away girl, run away and keep running
These days I can't think straight but I know that you are worth this

So run away with me and I'll make your dreams come true
Don't look back, don't look back

Hollywood means so much more than you could ever know
So pack your bags girl, lets get away
It's time for you to leave this place, and time to make a change
So run away with me.
