Why do you stay fast asleep?
The confrontation's with the sheep
The message has been redeployed
The emptiness to fill the void

The transformation has begun
And all at once the world was one
And one could wander where he pleases
Flashing smiles instead of visas

How long will it stay this way?
A lot of noise, nothing to say
For maximum efficiency
Selfish souls drown in the sea

Plate tectonics set adrift
Dark sarcasm to uplift
Once you join you cannot leave us
God will lick you with diseases

{The most destructive force in the universe
Nothing can escape it}

When you don't get your respect
It's just a test to keep your mind in check
Illuminating I project
Some want to call it psycho text

The comprehension of a lex
Select a time to recollect
The blueprints of an architect
The double-sided bayonet

We're cutting all the safety nets
We're breaking down a sacred text
Historical revisionist
So one of your decisions is

Stop spitting all the venomous
So we can all get on with this
I think it is unanimous
The Universal Scientist

Are on the endangered list
Evaporating like a mist
Crooked televangelist
That's living in Los Angeles
Next door to Scientologists
You couldn't even knowledge this

Abraham the Universal Scientist
Maxim the Universal Scientist
Cyrus the Universal Scientist
Mazik the Universal Scientist
Benyad the Universal Scientist

{We want to talk about the most destructive force in
the universe
Nothing can escape it
We want to talk about the most destructive force in the universe
Nothing can escape it}

Now I washed you out my mind
Like I washed you out my sheets
A King without a Queen and my life is still complete My daily allowance of vitamin P from other women's juices
Don't confuse this man, I'm still ruthless

Family tree, got the foresight to see
And the only energy you got is animosity
Living your days through me intravenously
O positive, 'cause Universal's how I gotta live

It's intrinsic to kick ballistic
My metaphysical form has the whole crowd swarm Like fabric get torn Charizmatik I'm sworn
To always do the duty
The rhymes are problematic and they always come profusely

Want some fuckin' static man, then use my terms loosely
Terms of endearment while other fuckers try to fear it
Insecure with their sexuality
Pre-natal telling fables unstable
Because they're looking for their record labels

Mankind's so full of shit, can't swallow it's own pride,
it's own pride
Mankind's so full of shit, can't swallow it's own pride,
it's own pride

Mankind's so full of shit, can't swallow it's own pride,
it's own pride
Mankind's so full of shit, can't swallow it's own
Swallow it's own, swallow it's own

Why do you stay fast asleep?
The confrontation's with the sheep
The message has been redeployed
The emptiness to fill the void

The transformation has begun
And all at once the world was one
And one could wander where he pleases
Flashing smiles instead of visas

{We want to talk about the most destructive force in
the universe
Nothing can escape it
We want to talk about the most destructive force in the
universe
Nothing can escape it}
