Every day I get up early in the morning 'cause I gotta go to work
'Cause I wanna go where the action is, where everybody treats me like a jerk I like taking shit from assholes, it's a dream come true but $5.18 ain't gonna pay the rent And I short-changed a guy with a whopper, he complained - I told him to get bent

But you know there will come a day (there will come a day)
I'm gonna make those fuckers pay Bloodbath at Burger King

Blood on the register, the grill and on the floor Blood on the fryer and the walk-in cooler door
