We're gonna fight,
We're gonna win,
We're making skate a fucking threat again.

We're on the prowl,
For something cool,
We're gonna shred your empty swimming pool.

We're doing slappy's at the Circle K,
And I did gnarly boneless while my walkman blasts out
JFA

[Chorus:]
Don't be a pussy,
there's no need to cry,
So shut up and get rad,
cuz' now it's time to skate or die.
Yeah you don't even need to know the reason why,
Just shut up and get rad,
cuz' now it's time to skate or die.

Go!

Mullen's my god,
He brings me joy,
The second coming of skate and destroy.

Brian was brave,
He hit a cop,
He won a trip down at the donut shop.

We're waging war against the posers of the day,
If we play our cards right someday,
we might be in the Bones Brigade.

[Chorus]

Skate!
