"We Are The Same"

We are the same, we never realize
We thought we came along in this world
We are the same, girl
Don't you know

We want to play life as it goes
We never should disguise
We never sailed alone in this world
We were in space
Don't you know

We never said goodbye
We never cared to ask anyway
Things always came to be
And we hate to conform
But we should

We had no choice
We had to learn for ourselves
We can't complain when we're all alone
We are insane
