(chorus)

If you decide to walk away
I'll find you in scenes of tomorrow
I hear you calling me everyday
I see you in drawings of sorrow
In troubled seas
You gave me more than a moment
You don't understand
I'm only trying to make it last
I'm covered by
Your rhythm as a reminder
Invading your stares
Just for a second of self despair
You never care of how I'm feeling now
All of your spells have broken down

Why do you keep on pushing me to the outside
You don't understand
I'm only trying to forget the past
repeat chorus
I know what it means
To have no one with or around you
This desert loneliness
Is driving me down on my knees
Can't you see can't you feel
Scenes of tomorrow
Can't you see can't you feel
Drawings of sorrow
repeat chorus
