Jesus, come and calm the storm
It's been raging and I'm feeling worn
Help me see that I don't need
Anything but You

Help me walk upon this sea
That's been raging up inside of me
Eyes on You, don't let me sink
Into anything but You

Close to You is where I want to be
So close Your light envelop me
Eyes on You, I can walk across the sea
And lay my life down at Your feet
That You might be my all in all

The narrow path before me
Heaven above and hell beneath
Direct my heart and guid my feet
Step by step to You

And every day in every way
Oh Lord, I'll find a way to say
To say I love You
