I really want you, really want you, even though you hate to fuck

I really want you, really want you, even though you kind of suck

I really want you, really want you, even though you drink too much

I really want you, really want you, even though you're hard to touch

If you want to take me home, I'll give you anything for a

To put your hand in mine or anywhere you like

I really want you, really want to lay my head against your chest

I really want you, really want your conversations, is the best

I really want you, really want you to admit that you're the one

I really want you, really want you, even though you're
no damn fun

To put your hand in mine or anywhere you like.

I really hate you, really hate your retro t-shirt collection

I really hate you, really hate your sexual orientation

I really hate you, really hate you, things were fine, yea things were great

I really hate you, really hate you, really wish we could still date

To put your hand in mine or anywhere you like if you can spare the time
