Hey, I see why
Death is your life
You wait to arrive at night when
You're so much more than I am
Cause you... Andrew

"Hells hill" spotlights
A "Twilight Zone" high
You wait to arrive at night when
You're so much more than I am

Your silence, I hear it. Your whisper, I feel it
Tell me what you want, tell me right now
Tell me what you want, cause it's alright Your promise, so tempting, my life neverending (Your eyes beam like)
Tell me what you want, tell me right now
Tell me what you want, cause it's alright (Blinding strobe lights) Inside I still feel it, you look like you mean it (Hey, life's been trite)
Tell me what you want, tell me right now, (I'm hooked, your line
Tell me what you want, cause it's alright (High tide, grave dive)
Right now... (My heat, your ice)

There's a vampire on my back, (I feel like dying)
And there aint no turning back (And you, you're more alive)
I never felt like this before (I feel like dying)
And now I want it even more (And you, you're... a vampire)

Kisses for hiding the monster's conniving
It's you, you're a vampire
Screaming and fighting, I'm pale from the biting
It's you, you're a vampire
Screaming and fighting, your death so inviting
It's you, you're a vampire
