I don't put a smile upon your face no more
I can't make your heart shine like it did before
You don't listen to my stories anymore
You can't comfort me the way you did before

Was I too loud?
Was I too bad?
Was I too open?
Was I too high?
Was I too fast?
Was I too close?

I don't feel your lips like the first kiss
I'd rather run away than sit to face the truth

Was I too proud?
Was I too hopeful?
Was I too needing?
Was I too crazy?
Was I too long?
Was I too giving?

No matter how far
No matter how long
I will be there
